

9-1-1 Honors Gala

With Distinguished Guests

Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton (NY)
Representative Anna Eshoo (CA-14)
Representative John Shimkus (IL-19)

The Congressional E9-1-1 Caucus Co-Chairs

The E9-1-1 Institute and the National Emergency Number Association are once again teaming up to bring you:

The 4th Annual 9-1-1 Honors Gala

NENA and the E9-1-1 Institute will host an inspirational awards ceremony to honor outstanding individuals who have demonstrated heroism when handling a specific 9-1-1 call or who have exhibited outstanding leadership in the cause of advancing 9-1-1 on a local, state or federal level.

The event will be held at the Historical Union Station - East Hall. The 9-1-1 Honors Gala is the concluding event of the 2007 "9-1-1 Goes to Washington" (see www.nena.org for details).

A special VIP reception will take place prior to the Honor Awards Gala for Donors of the E9-1-1 Institute, Sponsors of 9-1-1 Goes to Washington and the 9-1-1 Honors Awards Gala, as well as people/businesses/companies that purchase tables for the 9-1-1 Honors Gala.

Tuesday – March 13, 2007
Historical Union Station on Capitol Hill - Washington, D.C.

VIP/Donor/Sponsor Reception – 5:00 – 6:00 p.m.
Pre-Dinner Cocktail Reception – 6:00 – 7:00 p.m.
Dinner / Awards Ceremony – 7:00 p.m.

Gala Tables: $2,000 (8 tickets)
9-1-1 Goes To Washington Event Sponsorship: $2,500

For more information on the Gala please contact:
Office: 202.292.4603 Fax: 202.292.4601 Mobile: 517.243.9620
Email: contactus@e911institute.org