

Join Us in Welcoming Our International
Participants from the European Union
& European Commission at the Standards Coordination Workshop(SDO)

April 10th – 6:00 – 9:00 p.m.
The National Postal Museum
2 Massachusetts Avenue, NE
Washington, DC

The Department of Transportation (DOT) has a long history of involvement in emergency communication issues. Beginning 40 years ago & continuing into the 21st century, DOT has funded numerous projects to enhance the United States 9-1-1 services.

Leadership is the key component in achieving a vision for the next generation communications services. To assist in coordinating the standards development process in routing emergency calls, the DOT Joint Program Office has agreed to host the next SDO Emergency Services Coordination Workshop.

A $2,000 Contribution is Suggested for Sponsorship of this Event

This Event is Co-Hosted By:

The E9-1-1 Institute
&
Allen R. Kane, Director
National Postal Museum

Smithsonian
National Postal Museum

There is no cost to attend – Please RSVP – rsvp@e911institute.org or 202.292.4603