

The E9-1-1 Institute

along with

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security Citizen Corps
Cal NENA

Northern California APCO Stanford Department of Public Safety

Invite you to attend a

Hometown Security Forum:

Addressing Community Preparedness for Northern California and Examining Technology Solutions

followed by a special luncheon honoring

Representative Anna Eshoo (D-CA)

for her commitment and leadership to advance
emergency communications

Monday, May 9, 2005

Policy Forum: 9:30 –11:30 am
Luncheon: 12:00 – 1:00 pm

Stanford University
The Tresidder Oak West Room
Palo Alto, California

RSVP: Jamie Radice, 202.292.4603, Jamie.Radice@e911institute.org

*This Hometown Security Forum is sponsored by:

ATX TECHNOLOGIES

BELL SOUTH

CINGULAR

CTIA

INTRADO

NENA

NEXTEL

RURAL CELLUAR ASSOCIATION

SBC

TCS

TRUE POSTION

VERIZON

VONAGE

*Additional Sponsors are available:

Contact the E9-1-1 Institute at 202.292.4603 or e-mail Jamie Radice at Jamie.Radice@e911institute.org