E9-1-1 Institute Hosts Homeland Security Forum on Capitol Hill

On Thursday July 28th the E9-1-1 Institute along with the offices of Senator Conrad Burns (R-MT), Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton (D-NY), Representative Anna Eshoo (D-CA) and Representative John Shimkus (R-IL) will be hosting a policy roundtable on Capitol Hill titled "Homeland Security and 9-1-1."

The purpose of the roundtable is to discuss the relationship between homeland security and emergency communications issues. Panelists include Reynold N. Hoover, the Director of National Security Coordination at the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), RoxAnn Brown, the Director of Metro-Nashville ECC in Tennessee, and Kevin Murray, the Senior Vice President of L. Robert Kimball & Associates, a consulting firm focused on Public Safety E9-1-1 operations consulting.

The E9-1-1 Institute is a non-profit organization which exists to support the Congressional E9-1-1 Caucus and assist it in promoting public education on E9-1-1 and emergency communications issues. The Institute provides informational and administrative support to members of the Congressional Caucus as they pursue their mission of improving 9-1-1 emergency communications. For more information about the E9-1-1 Institute and the Congressional E9-1-1 Caucus, please visit our website at www.e911institute.org.
